In the month of July, 1899, the undersigned, being a visitor at Southampton, Long Island, N. Y., suggested a somewhat novel form of literary entertainment in our summer communities. It was the offer of a prize for the best answer to the question What is Charm? This contest recalled the open competition of the mediaeval Troubadours of which perhaps the Academie des Jeux-Floraux of Toulouse in the south of France was the outcome, and which was afterwards perpetuated by the liberal endowment of the renowned Clemence Isaure. There is, however, this difference, that the competition of the Jeux-Floraux was open and personal, while this one was to be in writing and anonymous, the answers being all under noms de plume. The Southampton community was informed of the undersigned's intention by means of printed circulars (copies of which appear on the next page) posted in the Public Library, club houses and other appropriate semi-public places. It will be seen that competitors were induced to enter the lists under noms de plume, being assured that the names of the unsuccessful would remain unknown, unless they subsequently consented to their publication. From the first appearance of the circular to the final meeting of the Committee a little more than a week elapsed, a time limit having been fixed, and sixty-nine communications were received, prose and verse being about equally represented. On the afternoon of July 25th, at 4 o'clock, by invitation of Mr. Samuel L. Parrish an informal tea was given at the Art Museum of Southampton, upon which occasion there were assembled about two hundred guests in whose presence were read the communications of the...
