Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A tale of murder, seven people in five months it all began on October 14, 2003. The citizens of Chicago were glued to their television sets watching the Cub s play the Florida Marlins in game five of the national league playoffs. Simultaneously, on the far south side of the city, two young struggling drug addicted women entered into an abandoned house with the sole purpose of having sex for drugs. Little did they know, they would never leave again. The two men they met that fateful night would go on a killing spree starting with them. A gruesome series of murders that went on for months before the police would ever become aware of the crimes. It is now a race between the killers, who are definitely planning to kill again, and The Murder Police, who must stop them before any more innocent women are murdered. The language is real. The people are real. This story is real and it leaves you on the very edge of your seat with a racing spellbound heart until the very end. This is one of many tragic true cases of Chicago s finest, better known as. The Murder Police.
