In an unstuffy clear fluid prose, laced with many anecdotes, he provides real insight into the educating of boys and their unique and very different ways of learning. John F. Lehman Jr. , former Secretary of the United States Navy and member of the 911 Commission. Author of Command of the Seas As the mother of two sons who benefited from Brian Walshs wisdom, I am delighted that he is finally sharing his insights with a wider audience. Every page of Boys Should Be Boys reflects Brians understanding of the special nature of boys from early childhood through adolescence. With clarity and great sensitivity, he tells stories that can help parents and educators alike nurture the best of boys and help them reach their full potential.
