

Business and Diversion: Discourse at Ammauskeeg-Falls (Classic Reprint)

By Joseph Secombe

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Business and Diversion: Discourse at Ammauskeeg-Falls The first printed sermon preached within the limits of what is now Manchester, N. H., was at Ammuskeeg-Falls, in the Fishing Season, 1739, by Rev. Joseph Secombe, of Kingston, N. H., a gentleman of good attainments, eccentric habits, and extremely fond of fishing. It was his custom annually, with other gentlemen, to visit the Falls for recreation and diversion. At such times he preached on Sunday to the natives and others settlers and visitors. One of his sermons was printed in Boston in 1743, and dedicated to the Honourable Theodore Atkinson, Esq., of Portsmouth; N. H., who was one of his hearers. Copies of the printed discourse have become very scarce, only five perfect ones being known to exist. It has been thought advisable to reprint the same that it may be preserved; hence seventy-five copies have been put into covers for circulation in libraries and among friends to preserve it from oblivion. With the exception of the modern s for the former long f, the same appears verbatim,...
