Excerpt: . . . and renew his courage of outlook for this country. OST satisfactory to all interested in the solution of labor troubles must be the termination of the great strike at Lord Penrhyns quarries in Wales. The strike was notable for the degree of public sympathy shown toward the strikers, and for his lordships entire refusal to admit the propriety of any outside interference in the matter, not only by representatives of the workingmen, but by the Board of Trade. The result is an unmitigated success for the employes from every point of view. Lord Penrhyn concedes the right of the men in all controversies to be represented by commissioners of their own choosing, and the public interest in the case has compelled him to recognize the interest of the public in enforcing a settlement of a strike which threatens the public peace as well as private justice. In a previous issue of Tar: COMMONS mention was made of the social studies in the Sunday school of the Presbyterian Church of Clyde, N. Y., of which Rev. V. N. Yergin is pastor. The work goes on with increasing success. Recent topics have been The Gospel and Humanitys Need, The Christ of To-day, The Brotherhood of Man, and its Consequent Reciprocal Obligations, The Duties of Man. The outlook for the winters work at Chicago Commons is exceedingly encouraging. The settlement begins with the largest force of residents in its history, and several have been added to the...
