Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Commonplace wisdom is, oddly enough, remarkably uncommon. Everyone has opinions, everyone has advice, but not everyone has the keen sense of turning lemons into lemonade-with great good humor-that is demonstrated by Maggie Anderson in Saving Your Sanity. From childhood memories of life on the family porch and her father s improbable encounter with the Hobo King through struggling with knitting and watercolors and learning to appreciate the simple things in life, Maggie will trigger your own precious memories. You will find yourself pulled into her world with glee. Remember that time when you started riding a bicycle and fell over and over again before getting it right? Or when you started piano lessons and wondered how you could ever get both hands to work together? Or the months that you and your spouse spent struggling to make ends meet yet discovered the joy of a (free) day at the beach, walk in the woods, or pillow fight? Maybe you ve experienced the terror and anxiety of a loved one s illness and have come away treasuring each day-each moment, each meal, each meaningful glance-in a new way. Maggie has been there and back again, and she s here to tell you about it. She won t preach. She won t scold. She won t pretend to be better, smarter, or more talented than you. What she will do is help you to view your life with a fresh perspective and appreciate the blessings and obstacles that come your way. And she does it in deceptively short anecdotes, each of which still manages to create an entire world for you to inhabit. Every page is a breath of fresh air. She s funny, irreverent,...
