Not illustrated. 1881 Excerpt: .of the Bombay University, thus referred to the great need of moral instruction, from the lowest to the highest educational standards: -- Though necessarily precluded from adverting to religion, I yet in nowise forget, or expect you to forget, that it is impossible to teach human duty, comprising the relations between man and man, without also teaching something at least of man s duty towards God. No doubt, one of the effects of really good teaching in arts, say in the branches of history or literature, must be to inculcate always incidentally, and often directly, much of the general duty of man. Good teaching of physical science also must, as I believe, enlarge the ideas and elevate the sentiments of man in respect of God, and must impress upon him at least something of his duty towards his Creator. But such teaching cannot furnish him with...
