

Can I Have Some Money (Vol 4) Nacho Money

By Candi Sparks

Sparks Fly. Paperback. Condition: New. Graf Bill (illustrator). 45 pages. Max is in for a few surprises when money comes between family and friends in Nacho Money. Follow Max as he decodes the secret to having money and learns about love, trust and friendship along the way. This cute story is realistic and helps kids learn about money by using real life situations and real money words like asset and layaway. Max and older brother, Chris, have a humorous relationship around money and they help each other understand the difference between being a good money manager and a sorry borrower. The book concludes with Max back on top, having learned a lot about himself and how to become a money tycoon. The book features word scrambles and thoughtful questions about managing money that will spur the reader to think about good financial etiquette as they learn ways to make, save and use money wisely. Kids can learn life saving financial planning from an early age with the Can I Have Some Money book series. Nacho Money is Vol. 4 of the Can I Have Some Money book series by Candi Sparks for kids and the people that raise them. Visit www....
