The Mind of Success Your Guide to Career Building and Self-actualisation

By Michael Buraimoh

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 112 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. With the recent global economic meltdown, the job market has become more competitive than ever before. It has become apparent these days that only the focused and purpose-driven individuals, who not only have discovered themselves but also possess a positive attitude and understand how to develop and maximise their skills, would have a chance of a successful and unthreatened career. Indeed, what defines successful people is always their mentality. The Mind of Success gives a practical and acquirable approach that is directed at achieving self-actualisation. To understand the mind of success means being driven by the desire to achieve the utmost possible in your life as a product of hard but smart work based on the discovery and release of your complete potential and strengths. Having a mind of success is not the same as and should never be mistaken for being a success-conscious person. While the success-conscious person may mostly only think of what he or she can get within the shortest possible time, often hoping to do so without actually working hard for it, the mind...
