Charlie stood with his plump hands folded, looking into his mother s eyes so earnestly, that she could scarcely repress the tears, as she continued to answer question after question to the thoughtful child. CHAPTER XIV. Our morning glory had grown quite fast, and wag now (everal weeks old. She was a never failing source of pleasure to us, and our last kisses before going to school, and first ones upon returning, were bestowed upon her little velvet lip and cheek. Charlie was excessively fond of her, and when she was strong enough to hold his finger...
