Classic Age Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 154 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. The second edition of the Message to a Blackman in Africa is an expansion of the first edition which was written three years ago. This is a doctrine of the African social insurgency; it defies conventional thinking with an open argument that prods the courageousness of an African mind that has suffered the injustices of colonial victimization, indoctrinations, dehumanization and a psychological low-class alienation because I believe that Africans; like all other races are psychologically adept and ideologically fit to play a major role in issues of human civilization like they did back then during the dark age and before colonialism with the introduction of the Tablet writing systems, Astrology, architecture, Mathematics, fishing, building structures, early scientific education, steel, Coins, letters, Jewelleries and many things that later attracted the western countries to tour into Africa for various reasons, which ended up with some western felons developing enough jealous, ferocity and hate to rape the continent Africa by colonizing it. I personally believe that a human mind can achieve far greater things when working under no psychological custody. This book is very provocative since it follows the patterns of re-educating the mis-educated African mind. That journey of re-educating the mis-educated minds was started many years ago by the likes of Frederick Douglas, Carter G. Woodson, Marcus Garvey, Fratz Fanon, Kwame Nkrumah, Malcolm X, Steve Biko, Louis Farrakhan, Robert Sobukwe, Thomas Sankara, Patrice Lumumba, Dr Hendrick Clarke Dr Umar Johnson and many others whom have died in the course to re-educate Africans to honour, protect, love and uplift their own kind after having been indoctrinated for a long time and being taught to hate their own kind. This message shall remain nothing new but rather a unique narrative in...
