Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Address Before the Alumni Association of the University of North Carolina: Delivered in Gerard Hall, June 2, 1847, the Evening Preceding Commencement Mr. President, and gentlemen of the association: In appearing before you to-day, while I regret that your invitation had not found one possessed of more leisure than I have had in which to meet its requirements, I am glad of the opportunity which has thus been afforded me, to testify my continued interest in my Alma Mater, and my sincere regard for those great purposes of science and of virtue which it is the fortunate office of an American University to promote. After intervals of absence - some of them embracing more than a quarter of a century - we visit again, mindful yet of our literary brotherhood, the cherished scenes of our youthful studies, and renew for a few brief hours, amid the fragrant memorials of Chapel Hill, our ancient companionship of letters, and our old associations of classic life. Turning aside from our accustomed pursuits, we exchange the greetings of friendship...
