

McIntosh Summer (Hardback)

By Deanna K Klingel

Progressive Rising Phoenix Press, LLC, 2016. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .McIntosh Summer is a must read! From a historical point as well as a Muscogee (Creek) cultural point, the historian in me was captivated by factual information and events in the book, and the Cultural Resources side of me was amazed at the depiction of the Muscogee culture. This story set in 1933, location Georgia. The author beautifully captures the melting of cultures during trying times, especially in the South. The pronouns Negroes and Colored utilization in this book accurately describe the terms and titles that were used in the 1930 s. As an American of African Descent (I am not an African-American because I was born here in America as well as both of my parents) I do not take offense from the terms and titles. If I may quote the author in her first correspondence with me History doesn t always paint lovely pictures, and we can t change that. It is what it is. It s history! We can t change it, we can t judge it, we can learn from it and do better. That s the...
