Forgotten Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from History of the First Church in Boston, 1630-1880 Captain Pearce to the coast of Ireland in quest Of a fresh supply. It must have been that that country was thought to be nearer than any other, otherwise there would seem to be some reason for thinking with Cotton Mather, that perhaps there were other places more over owing with milk and honey, to which it would have been wiser to send. However as afterwards appears, the errand proved fruitful of success. In spite of these adversities - we might rather say because of them - the people hurried on the organization of the church. The 30th of July was set apart as a day Of fasting and prayer, and after appropriate religious exercises, Governor Winthrop, deputy-governor Dudley, Mr. Isaac Johnson, and Mr. John Wilson subscribed the following Church covenant, the same which is continued with us to day.
