Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Born in to Pharaoh Khufu s harem, Hasina is on the brink of womanhood and entering Egyptian society as a woman of privilege.Trained to read and write, she manages trade deals as caravans swarm to the black lands for foods and Egyptian ware. She is unaware how a nomadic people fleeing the barren lands of Canaan are about to remover her from all she has known. Used by her Father as a peace offering to stop a plague in her city, she has no choice but to become Sarai s new handmaid. From Pharaoh s daughter to a Desert Queen s servant. As she struggles to overcome her resentment at the One-God s nomadic people and leader Abram, she forms a close friendship with Sarai, feeling pity for the barren wife of the Patriarch. Until Sarai gives up hope of bearing the One-God s promised child to Abram, destined by God to be an Exalted Father and a great nation. Sarai, in her hidden pain and bitterness, looks upon Hasina, young and fertile, and hatches a plan with Abram to use Hasina in...
