Excerpt: .is entitled to possession immediately after giving notice, if occupied within thirty days thereafter. The nature of the right given by the certificate has been adjudicated. In Re Commissioners of Elizabeth, 49 N. J. Law 488, Mr. Justice Depue said: By the city charter (of Elizabeth) the certificate of sale does not transfer or divest the title. The certificate, by section 84, after it is recorded, constitutes simply a continuation of the original lien. Title is not divested until a declaration of sale is executed and delivered and also re corded in the county clerk s office. In the meantime, however long the declaration of sale and the recording of it may be delayed, the owner or his representatives may redeem. A certificate of sale made to the city, in effect, maintains its lien for taxes and assessments in statu quo. Everything is in fie/ri until a declaration of sale duly executed and recorded divests the title of the owner. If it be suggested that the charter declared that the certificate should constitute a lien, the answer is that in the subsequent case of Zllaginnis v. Rutherford, 78 N. J. La-w 288, the same construction was put upon a statute which, like the present, contained no such declaration. And the reason is obvious. All that the bidder gets by his certificate is a. statement that he bid at the sale and that the lot was struck of!: and sold to him. The sale differs...
