Language: English Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Heath Readers: Fouth Reader This book is intended for pupils who have completed the work of the third reader grade. Such pupils, presumably, have mastered the greater part of the mechanical difficulties connected with reading, have acquired a taste for good literature, and are able to read simple selections with good expression. It is the purpose of this reader to continue, through the use of appropriate material, the training given in the earlier grades, and to further the development of the growing powers of the pupil. At the age when the Fourth Reader is appropriately used, the imagination of the child is at its height, and his fondness for stories of action and adventure is as great as it ever will be. For this reason, prominence has been given in the earlier part of the book to selections that appeal to the interests that are strongest among those who will read the selections for purposes of profit and instruction. At the same time, care has been taken to develop a taste for good literature and an appreciation of the beauties of form and expression. There are two principles of grading which should determine the order and development of a reading book. The first is based upon the difficulties of vocabulary and sentence structure. The second has to do with the difficulties of the subject matter itself and with the maturity of mind requisite for its appreciation.
