Arch. Gen. De M ed. Aout 1825, ii. - M. Lisfranc, the well known lecturer on operative surgery at Paris, has completely succeeded in realizing a conjecture started some time ago by Laennec, with regard to the applicability of his stethoscope to the diagnosis of fractures. With the aid of this instrument, he avers that no surgeon can ever remain in doubt as to the existence of a fracture in any part of the body, except the head. The tume faction around the injury can never be so considerable as to obscure the crepitation entirely; and the slightest possible movements are sufficient to produce the requisite sound. The following general rules have been established by frequent observation, both on the dead and on the living body. 1. The instrument may be applied over the seat of fracture with or without the end-piece; but the farther it is removed...

Reviews

A top quality ebook and the typeface used was interesting to learn. This can be for all who statte that there had not been a well worth reading through. I am just pleased to tell you that this is basically the very best ebook i actually have go through in my individual life and can be he finest book for at any time.

-- Mr. Carol Bergnaum IV

This publication will not be straightforward to begin on studying but quite fun to see. It really is basic but shocks in the fifty percent of the ebook. I realized this ebook from my dad and i advised this pdf to learn.
