Brad Feldman is desperate to come up with a novel idea for his failing television series, America s Most Haunted Locations. When his friend reminds him about Doctor Louise Hilton and her groundbreaking research in parapsychology at Duke University during the 70 s, Brad thinks she may be just the person to breathe new life into his struggling project. After reviewing her files on paranormal activity, Doctor Hilton invites a select group of people to join her and Brad at an old Victorian mansion in Michigan s remote Upper Peninsula, where they will film the pilot for the new series. At first, Brad is delighted when unexpected happenings start to occur, but his joy soon turns to fear as things quickly spiral out of hand. As a nor easter heads their way, Doctor Hilton is worried that some of the participants may be concealing dark secrets.some of them deadly. It is soon apparent that not all horrors come from beyond the grave.
