What the sound teaching of the Bible College has meant through forty eight years of service in China is hard to express. We were taught to use the Word of God in pointing others to Christ, and I will illustrate this by one instance, that of a very beautiful Chinese young lady. She came to my study one day, and said, Please tell me how to be saved. We sat down with our New Testament, turning from one passage to another, asking her to read them, such as John and many others. After reading them over several times she said, Let me read John again - passed out of death into life. Out of into (chinese translation). She jumped up and exclaimed, I see it, I see it; I am saved I shall never forget her face as the truth reached her heart, making her face shine as the very glory of God. Uberta F. Steele, of the United Church of Canada Mission in China: As I look back upon the short time spent in the Bible College I like to remember especially three things which were of great value to me in my work in China. (1) The fellowship with teachers and students, which resulted in the deepening of my own spiritual life. (2) The lectures, which furnished material to be used with my own students. (3) The emphasis on prayer. I remember the student prayer-meetings when the Lord was very near. I went out with missionary and evangelistic groups where the message was haltingly given by earnest but untrained and inexperienced students. But the prayers of the group prepared their way. And upheld them...
