Excerpt from Address of the President of the United States: Delivered at a Joint Session of the Two Houses of Congress, April 2, 1917 The text of President Wilson s address to the special session of Congress follows: I have called the Congress into extraordinary session because there are serious - very serious - choices of policy to be made - and made immediately - which was neither right nor constitutionally permissible that I should assume the responsibility of making. On the third of February last I officially laid before you the extraordinary announcement of the imperial German government that on and after the first day of February it was its purpose to put aside all restraints of law or of humanity and use its submarines to sink every vessel that sought to approach either the ports of Great Britain and Ireland or the western coast of Europe or any of the ports controlled by the enemies of Germany within the Mediterranean. That has seemed to be the object of the German submarine warfare earlier in the war, but since April of last...
