Babingtons Lodging: A Veiled Picture on the Wall Enter Babington, Tichborne, Tilney, Abington, Salisbury, and Barnwell Babington Welcome, good friends, and welcome this good day That casts out hope and brings in certainty To turn raw spring to summer. Now not long The flower that crowns the front of all our faiths Shall bleach to death in prison; now the trust That took the night with fire as of a star Grows red and broad as sunrise in our sight Who held it dear and desperate once, now sure, But not more dear, being surer. In my hand I hold this England and her brood, and all That time out of the chance of all her fate Makes hopeful or makes fearful: days and years, Triumphs and changes bred for praise or shame From the unborn womb of these unknown, are ours That stand yet noteless here; ours even as Gods Who puts them in our hand as his, to wield About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
