Excerpt from Sixty-Ninth Annual Report of the City of Rochester, New Hampshire: For the Year Ending December 31, 1960 We have as our primary concern all the citizens of Rochester. The elections are over and we should forget them. Let us all remember that we were elected to serve all the people. It should be kept constantly in mind that future proposals should be measured by the yardstick whether or not this is good for the entire city and not for the benefit of a special few. As the holding of our present tax rate is of major concern to all of us, we should endeavor to trim our expenditures to meet revenue income. The efficiency and equity of our assessment can be improved by having a full time assessor. I trust that you will give this important question a great deal of consideration. The Industrial Committee has made great progress and this vital program should be continued for our mutual benefit. The Planning Board has assumed great importance during the past year. As the program ends in April, I believe we...
