

Forest Life (Paperback)

By Shane Crash

Civitas Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Forest Life by Shane Crash follows Emmett Thompson as he retreats to seclusion in the woods of Paris, Tennessee. After suffering the loss of a loved one, Emmett struggles to sustain the will to live. He must confront his suffering and overcome it, before it permanently destroys him. I like the way she dances and I like the way she sings. The way I feel when I watch her dance. I can't explain that, I confess. Behind us a family laughs and I hear some children scream. I glance back to see two young boys running through the tide. When she dances, I continue, it feels like she conquers all my cynicism. I don't feel dead or empty. I don't know. I want to be with her despite everything but I can't let myself. Won't that mean that Lenai meant nothing to me? I stare down at my feet. Something inside me knows that's not true. I think you're trying to make yourself believe that because you're afraid. And Emmett, can I tell...
