Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Beauty doesn't Mean Spending a Fortune Maintaining your beauty is not going to happen if you are not willing to put in a bit of work to make it happen. This means that you need to take care of your skin. Along with a healthy diet and exercise there are a number of ways that you can take charge of your skin care routine and get the fresh, vibrant and gorgeous skin that you want. There are tons of products on the market that can help you with aging, acne, rosacea s, wrinkles and fine lines, puffy skin and so much more. But, as they say, you get what you pay for, and in order to get products that really work you must spend what seems like an arm and a leg on them. Until now that is. What would you do if you could maintain the beauty that you desire without forking over such a great amount of money? What if you could also do this with products more natural gentler and without all of the side effects that some of those drug store products bring? It is possible, and if you are ready to make these changes all that it takes is a bit of know how. And we are here to provide you with just that. In the following pages you are in store for a real treat. You will learn how to keep yourself looking gorgeous day in and day out without spending all of this money and risking your health to do it. Many at-home beauty care products can be created quickly and easily if you're ready to use them. We are...
