Peppertree Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Asa Blanchard is a 23-year old graduate student who lives in Williamsburg, Virginia and works in the Colonial Williamsburg Silversmith s shop. He is quite content with his life until he happens, one day, to meet Rebecca Lane, an 18-year old high school graduate who works in the Milliner s shop. They begin to share lunchtime and explore hidden corners of the historical area. While their attraction to each other rapidly grows, they find a mysterious mirror in a clearing in nearby woods. Through experimentation, they discover that the mirror is a time portal that extends back to 1798. After a particularly turbulent night at her troubled home, Rebecca impulsively decides to go through the portal and live out her life in the past. She leaves Asa a note expressing her love for him. Asa is torn over what to do but decides he must follow her through the portal and convince her to return. Asa finds her and pleads with her to return. Rebecca steadfastly refuses even though she is heartbroken and walks him back to the portal so he can return to the future, but the portal is gone. They are both trapped in 1798. Recovering from the initial shock, they travel north. Recognizing that an unchaperoned woman and single man together would be suspicious in the 1790s, they agree to pose as man and wife. Meanwhile, the police investigate the disappearance of the young couple to no avail. Asa s Uncle John, a history professor with whom he was very close, doggedly pursues the mystery over the years that follow, finding clues and eventually guessing that they somehow went back in time. In their new lives, Asa uses his...
