Nyema: The Norton Sisters Series, Book 3 (Paperback)

By E L R Jones

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Nyema Norton is a child psychologist, a mother, a sister, a friend, amongst other things. She has always been the type to be there to listen if you needed it or give sage advice that helped others to improve upon their lives. She has known great loss. First, her sister, then the father of her child. As such, she has chosen to guard her heart against anyone outside of her family and inner circle of friends. Nyema is perceived as the one that has it all together. James Kenyon, architect, has always been the man with no desire to have a wife and/or family of his own. He applauds his best friend for stepping out and finding love, but he wants no parts of it. James had decided to assist a friend with having a child. A simple act of kindness, a freak accident and one phone call has his world spinning. What he doesn't count on is a loss greater than one he ever thought to endure, a woman that changes his outlook and that very same woman possibly being...
